I'm scared. I'm scared. I'm scared.
I thought I was happy with how you didn't know my past, and how I used to shred my skin, and think of myself as nothing.
But I'm scared. I'm afraid.
What if I get sad again? What if I get really, really sad, again? Are you going to understand? Are you going to help? Are you going to stay?
Please say you'll stay.
I'm scared. I'm scared. I'm scared.
